

Plain Dealer
Metro Section
Friday, October 27, 2006

Cheers & Jeers

Cheers...to developer Rick Maron and his sons, Ari and Jori, who are to get the Ruth Ratner Miller Award from the Downtown Cleveland Alliance today. For most of a decade, the Marons have worked to transform East 4th Street into a premier downtown entertainment district. They deserve the honor. Better yet, the clubs and restaurants are worth braving construction hassels.